Bahra University, through Registrar, Wahnaghat, Distt. Solan(HP)

.....Respondent

INTERIM ORDERS

Commission express its displeasure on the partial compliance of its orders dated 09.06.2020 by Bahra University. As per the affidavit filed by the University salaries for three months had to be released whereas as per the submission of Registrar salaries for one month have only been released. University is directed to pay the salary for the left out two months with a simple interest rate of 5% on account of non compliance of the orders of the Commission as per Section 11 of HPPER Act and Rules made there under. As it appears that the financial management of the University is improper. Commission will constitute a three member committee of experts to inquire in to the financial matters of the University right from its inception i.e from the year 2010. Committee has to submit its report within one month. As per the submission of University some of the faculty members are still on strike. Registrar of the University is directed to submit list of all those staff members who are on strike on the next date of hearing on 25.06.2020. As per the submission of University, Chancellor is the final authority in the financial matters of the University and he had submitted the affidavit, hence his personal appearance be ensured on the next date of hearing on 25.06.2020.

The matter is listed for 25/06/2020.

Copies of order be supplied to the complainant and Bahra University for necessary compliance.
