ORDERS

On 30.07.2019 a complaint was received from Ms. Ankush Sharma regarding illegal dismissal from services by Bahra University vide this office letter No.HP-PERC/21/Bahra –Vol-III/2017-4281 dated 02.08.2019. The Registrar of Bahra University was asked to appear before the Commission on 07.08.2019 alongwith all record. On 07.08.2019 University was directed to file a detailed reply to the complaint including the procedure adopted for the termination of services of the petitioner and all other points raised by the petitioner. Meanwhile the petitioner was directed to submit a detailed complaint and all the supporting documents, if any other then complaint. On 05.09.2019 both the parties appeared before the Commission and submit desired information. Seeing the complexity of the matter a case was registered vide case No. 24 of 2019 for further consideration. On 29.09.2019 an email has been received from the petitioner Ms. Ankush Sharma stating that she has moved the Hon'ble Court for timely intervention and justice in spite of the fact that proceedings were under way with the Commission and respondent University appeared on every hearing scheduled in Commission. Commission expressed displeasure on the communication made by the petitioner. Present case is dropped on the request of complainant as she has already moved the Hon'ble Court for redressal.

Copies of order be supplied to the applicant and respondent University.

Order be uploaded on the website of the Commission.
